Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Kathmandu (1350m)

Welcome to Nepal, on your arrival at TIA our Precious Adventures representative will pick you up at the airport. The representative will transfer you to the hotel where you will stay. After your long and tiring journey to Nepal, you can either relax in your room or perhaps explore the local vicinity and be fascinated by the diverse culture of Nepal. In the evening you are cordially invited for a complimentary dinner where you meet with your trek guide and they will further provide detailed information about the trip. For dinner, you will have staple Nepali food which includes rice, daal, and vegetable along with meat depending on your choice.

Day 02: Sightseeing Kathmandu

Today we drive around Kathmandu for sightseeing and visit two of the UNESCO world heritage sites in Kathmandu. Boudhanath stupa holds a prominent place among Buddhist people. A stupa is a hemispherical shaped structure or mound which is prominent in Buddhism. Though the Boudhanath stupa is bustling with day-to-day activities, the atmosphere around here is rather tranquil.

Pashupatinath temple is one of the most sacred and significant Hindu temples in the world. The temple is dedicated to Lord Pashupatinath, who is an incarnation of Lord Shiva. While visiting the temple we can see some Hindu rituals and ceremonies taking place. Both religious places are beacons of diverse religions, cultures, and history. For lunch, we have local delicious cuisine, a hallmark of Nepali traditional food. Walking around these monuments brings about a beautiful impression of the tradition, culture, city life, and customs of Nepal. The choice is yours to make. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 03: Drive to Pokhara (850 m), 7-8 hours

On this day we take a short 35 minutes flight or a 7-8 hours ride to Pokhara. The distance from Kathmandu to Pokhara is approximately 200 kilometers, and the drive typically takes about 6-7 hours by car. Even though Pokhara is regarded as the tourist capital of Nepal, the city is known for its natural beauty with stunning views of the Himalayas and peaceful lakes. To get to Pokhara from Kathmandu, you would need to take the Prithvi Highway, which is the main road that connects the two cities. The highway passes through several towns and villages, and there are several points of interest along the way, including the Nagarkot Hill Station and the Chitwan National Park.

Day 04: Flight from Pokhara to Jomsom (2,715 m) and trek to Kagbeni (2804 m)

On the 4th day embarks our journey by taking a short flight to Jomsom, and trekking to Kagbeni. From the flight, we have scenic views of the Dhaulagiri and Annapurna ranges. Jomsom is the starting point of our today's short trek. it is also known as an administrative center of the Mustang District. After crossing the wooden bridge and walking through the Kali Gandaki windy valley, we arrive at Eklebhatti where we have lunch. Along the way, we see the splendid Dhaulagiri and Nilgiri mountains. Ammonite fossils are also found in the riverbed of Kali Gandaki. we continue our trek to Kagbeni. It is an old village located on the bank of the Kali Gandaki river. We will visit the Kagbeni gumba and the nearby temple and known as a holy place for Hindus. The village also serves as the gateway to Upper Mustang, a restricted area in Nepal. It is known for its pristine natural beauty and ancient Tibetan culture. Overnight at Kagbeni.

Day 05: Trek from Kagbeni to Muktinath, (3800 m)

On this day we begin our journey after finishing breakfast. Kagbeni is also known as the entrance of the Upper Mustang. The trail gradually ascends till we reach Jarkot and finally reach Muktinath. Kagbeni is also known as the main entrance of the Upper mustang. From here, the trail ascends to Jarkot and finally reaches Muktinath. Muktinath is the main destination of this trek where we visit the holy temple of Muktinath and stay overnight at the lodge.
